Studio Company

Last Updated Tuesday, 03 September 2013

The Central Florida Ballet's Studio Company is a program for preparatory to pre-professional dancers, beginning at age seven. The program is geared for the more serious dancer and offers performance opportunities year-round throughout the local community. A year-long commitment, acceptance is by audition only. Each child is placed according to their abilities and where they will perform their best. Your child will be placed into one of the following classes: Apprentice, Juniors, or Seniors. The membership fee depends upon placement. Photo: CFB's production of "The Ugly Duckling". Photo Credits: Virginia Trudeau and Deedee Sherman Auditions for Studio Company:
