

Frequently Asked Questions

Last Updated Monday, 04 August 2014

How can I register for classes?

New Students | All new students are required to take a placement class. To set up your child's trial class, please call the CFBA Office at 407.849.9942. All classes must be arranged with Front Office. After your child's placement class, submit the Registration Form and fee, signed Parent Contract, and first month's tuition payment to the Front Office.

Returning Students | Submit the Registration form and fee, signed Parent Contract and first month's tuition payment to the Front Office.

Adult Students | Submit the Registration Form to the Front Office (there is no registration payment). Where are you located? The Studios are located 2 minutes away from the Mall at Millenia and Holy Land. Our address is 3306 Maggie Blvd., Suite B, Orlando, FL 32811. Can I take a tour of your facilities? Yes, please call ahead of time to arrange a date and time. This ensures ample time to tour our facilities and answer questions. How much is tuition? Tuition varies per level and the number of classes your child takes per week. If your child is age 7 or older, they must be viewed in a trial class before tuition rates can be given.

Do I have to attend adult classes each week? No, you may attend adult class anytime you wish. By purchasing a class card you can receive a reduced rate per class. Please check the Adult Class page for pricing information and the Adult Class Schedule. Is there a dress code for adult classes? No, adults are welcome to wear any type of dance clothing in which they feel comfortable in. Many adults wear a leotard, tights, ballet shoes, and a cover up of a t-shirt and shorts. Your local dance store will be able to help you in finding suitable dancewear.