

Competition Team

Last Updated Monday, 08 August 2011

Photo Credits: Virginia Trudeau & Deedee Sherman The Competition Team is comprised of dancers from the Academy with the finest technique, artistry, and commitment. These students must have a resounding work ethic with great persistence, determination, and a desire to be the best. Competition team alumni leave with a great sense of pride and accomplishment, and develop confidence in establishing a successful career. Since its inception in 2004, members of the Competition Team have won top medals from leading ballet competitions including the American Ballet Competition, World Ballet Competition, Youth America Grand Prix, and the American Dance Competition.